Philadelphia Botanical Club Membership

Join the Philadelphia Botanical Club for a stimulating year of botany! As a member, you can:

- Receive Bartonia, the Club's journal
- Attend monthly talks featuring botanical experts
- Join field trips to learn about plants and their habitats
- Share your interest in plants with others in the botanical community

Members will receive the meeting schedule (issued in August or September), the field trip schedule (issued in spring), and the annual issue of our botanical journal, Bartonia.

Starting in 2011, the membership year will correspond with the calendar year. If you join during October, November, or December, your membership will extend through the following calendar year. If you join during other months, your membership ends on the last day of the current calendar year.
